Track Flashback

Schattenbaum managed to hold multiple track sessions through the pandemic. Here is a collection of them all, with a focus on the members who attended. Looks like track events are social events too!

July 2020

Clockwise from top right: Pete Debusmann and John Beidler doing flags on the tower; Bob Carrington told me about how Sean got his "new" 996; Brandon Working pit out; Bob Helm turning his camera on the camera, Bob Stein in background; I parked next to Robert Niszcak, who is now driving Dan's old 411 car

Track Flashback

July 2021

Below: Pete Tremper had a "Get Well Soon" gift from Peter Dawes.

Schattenbaum Showdown 2020 — Register for 2021 Now!

Clockwise from right: Devyn Kohler working the registration window; Soul Performance made the most of being out in the rain; Tony, Nick and Arnie working the weigh in area; Cherry Hill Porsche brought along a beautiful 911T and the incredible Taycan.

Track Flashback

Clockwise from right: Robbie Provost; Jeff Muller and John Beidler discussing in the Provost pits; a Spec Boxster gets squirrely in turn five; Close-up of grid workers Bill Lehman and John Pepe; Kevin Aberant's Red Bull Spec Boxster fronting the Provost tent.

Track Flashback

Clockwise from top left: Tom Stolz walking a wet grid; Cliff Goldsmith getting some impromptu suspension assistance from Mike Bono; no surprise to find Arnie manning a golf cart, taking someone or something to somewhere; former Schattenbaum Webslinger Bill Coulter was there in his 996; Cherry Hill Porsche also brought along a gorgeous red 997.2 GT3, and donated its services as a Pace Car.

Track Flashback

Clockwise from top left: Mark Calzaretta's number 17 Cayman race car with grid workers John Pepe and Bill Lehman; Claudia Debusmann working the grid as her husband Pete enters; Fabcar 993 of Riesentöter Region's Carl Tallardy; Pete Debusmann tackling front suspension fixes with a hoagie waiting for him when he's done; I was parked next to Nick Sapnar, whose 996 was looking and running great; Robert Niszcak running 411 was parked nearby also.

Track Flashback

November 2020

Clockwise from left: Barry (AKA "no-hands"), Turbo (AKA "John" and/or "Slider"), "Spinner" Peter, and "Gadget" Kevin ran together with their Caymans; November birthdays of Dave Felker, Pete Tremper, and Mike Kling were celebrated with a very festive cake; from New York came Jamie Hubbard in his 1986 911 Carrera, and David Wang in his 1980 911SC; the 1985 Iris blue RS-look backdate belongs to Brad Luchtman; Mick Cote drove up in his "Dickie Moe" 1983 930.

Track Flashback

March 2021

July 2021

Below: The Vice Pres and Pres talk with the ex-Pres. Right: George and Harriet Katsikis stopped by to see son Nick at the track.

Who doesn't enjoy personalized license plates? Especially when served up with a sense of humor...

Clockwise from below: Gary DiPietro fruit choice on his 2015 GT3; the plate on Karl Grohn's 1994 Mazda RX-7 makes sense once you see the LS under the hood; a Cayman with "Soul"; Stephen Kent connected the dots on his 1999 BMW M3; not sure who showed up in this "awesome" M3; George Busch's passing aspirations adorn his 2008 Z06 Corvette; Tim Sanford had some things in mind when he labeled his 996 Turbo.

Laura Lee Roberts

Laura Lee Roberts, age 66 years, of Raritan Township, NJ, died peacefully at home on Thursday, July 1, 2021, with her cherished husband, Tom Stolz by her side, and under the caring watch of Hunterdon Hospice.

Born on September 28, 1954 in Jamaica, Queens, New York, daughter of the late Michael Anderson and Ruth Carolyn Covington Roberts, Laura had resided in Mahwah, NJ for many years prior to moving to Raritan Township last year.

Authentic and empathetic, Laura was a gentle spirit who loved with all of her being, and found perfection in the simplicity of God's majesty.

Earning her master's degree from NJIT in management science, for over twenty-five years Laura was an Information Technology Manager with UPS where she was highly regarded by her colleagues as an 'IT Wiz' who was always there to support and be a friend.

While information technology was her career path, Laura's life path was all about appreciating the gifts given by a good and loving God, and using those gifts to help others as they traveled down their life path. She was an amazing listener whose soft, feminine ways balanced amazingly with her 'Annie Oakley' persona.

This side of Laura had a love of riding horses and a spirit of equestrianism that was embedded in her soul. She was a talented shooter and could knock a pebble off a glass bottle at one hundred yards. Her adventurous spirit also led her to drive Porsche race cars, and she was a longtime member of the Porsche Club of America.

It was this love of Porsche's that led Laura and her future husband, Tom, to meet for coffee one day after a mutual friend suggested that Tom call Laura as he felt they would get along well. Get along was putting it mildly, as the two had an instant connection based on respect, faith, and of course, racing Porsche's!
